Reflections . . . Images of the past; the recollection of the satisfaction, as well as agony, of past events and experiences . . . As a mirror portrays both the good and bad, so should be pictured the multi-faceted life confronting each and every one of us.

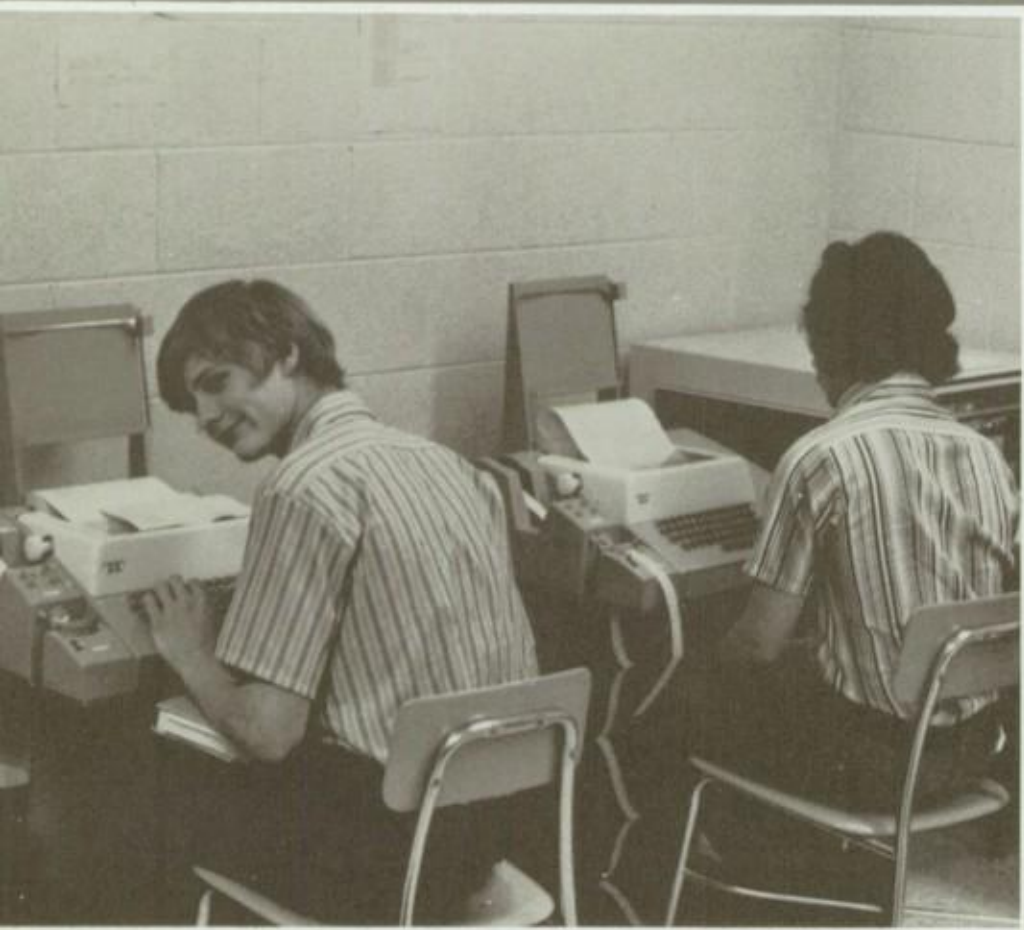

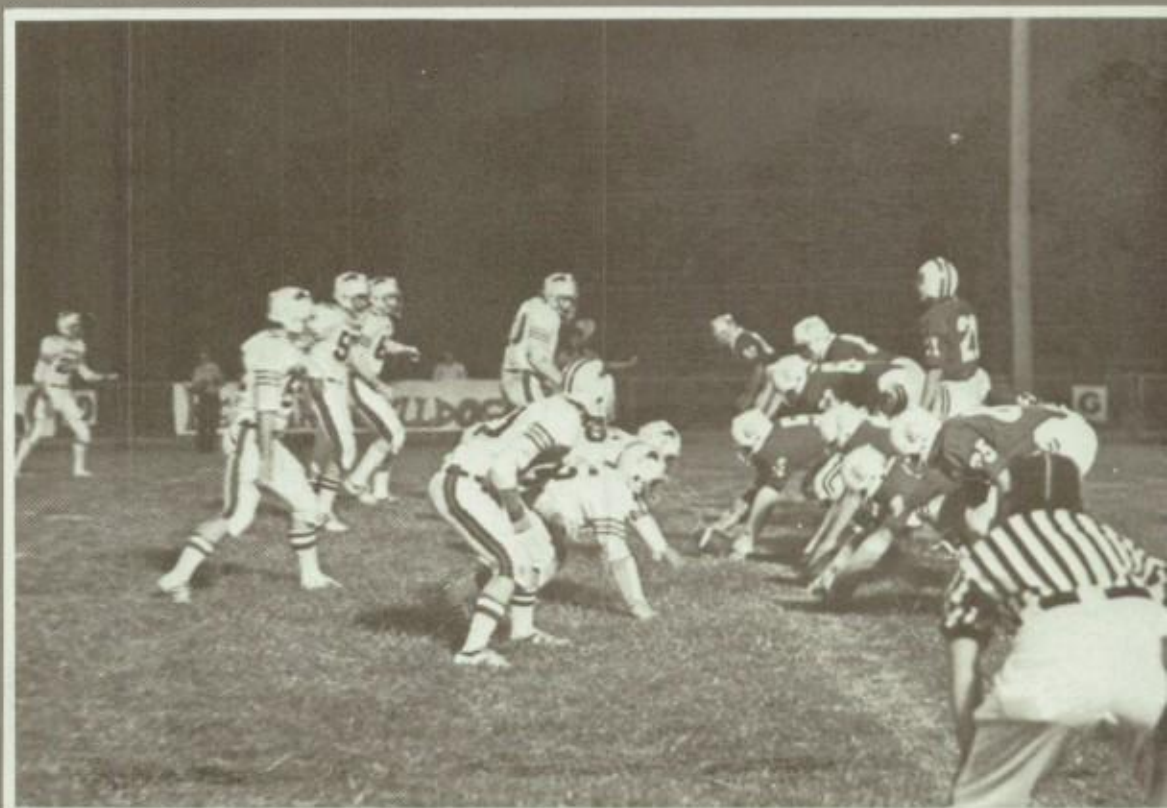

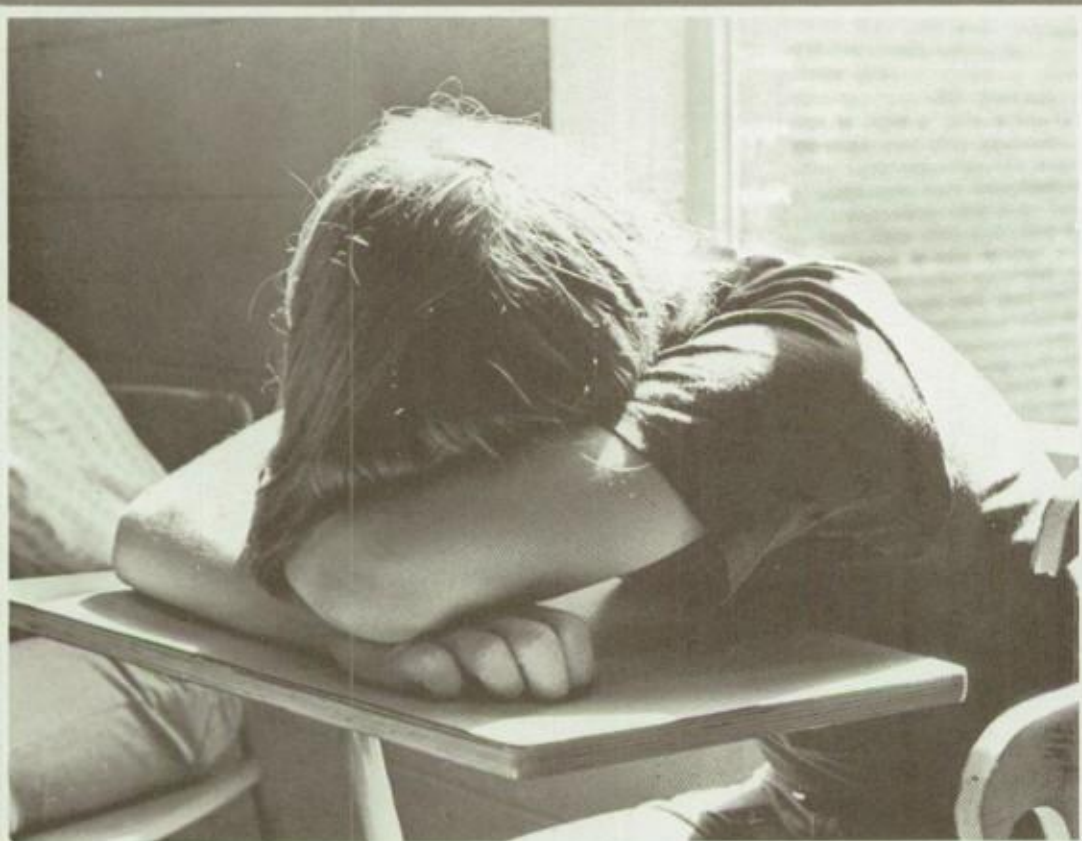

Reflections of the trials and tribulations of day to day existence . . . We proceed a single step at a time, lest we carelessly stumble backward in our attempt to excel— to accomplish.

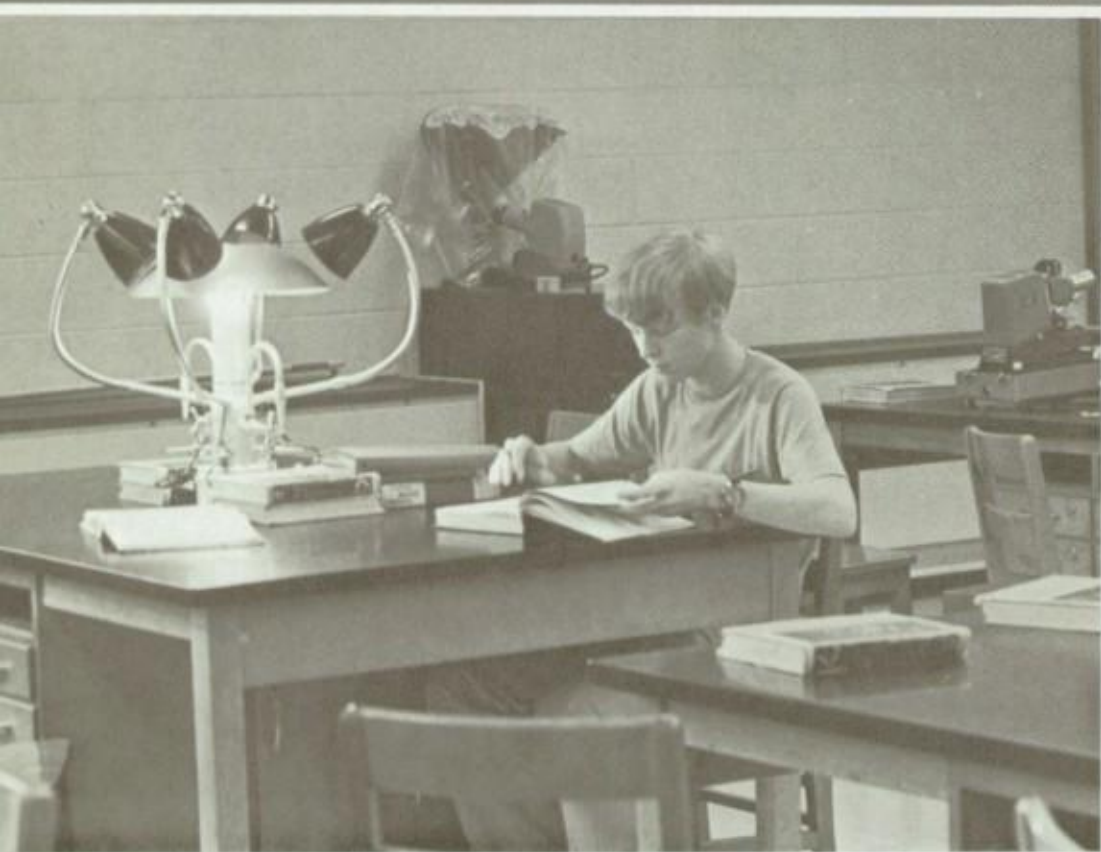

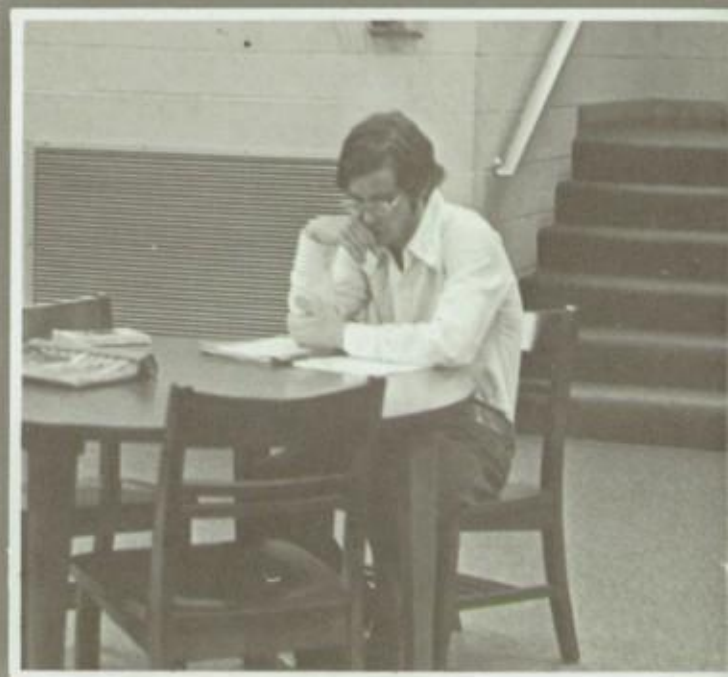

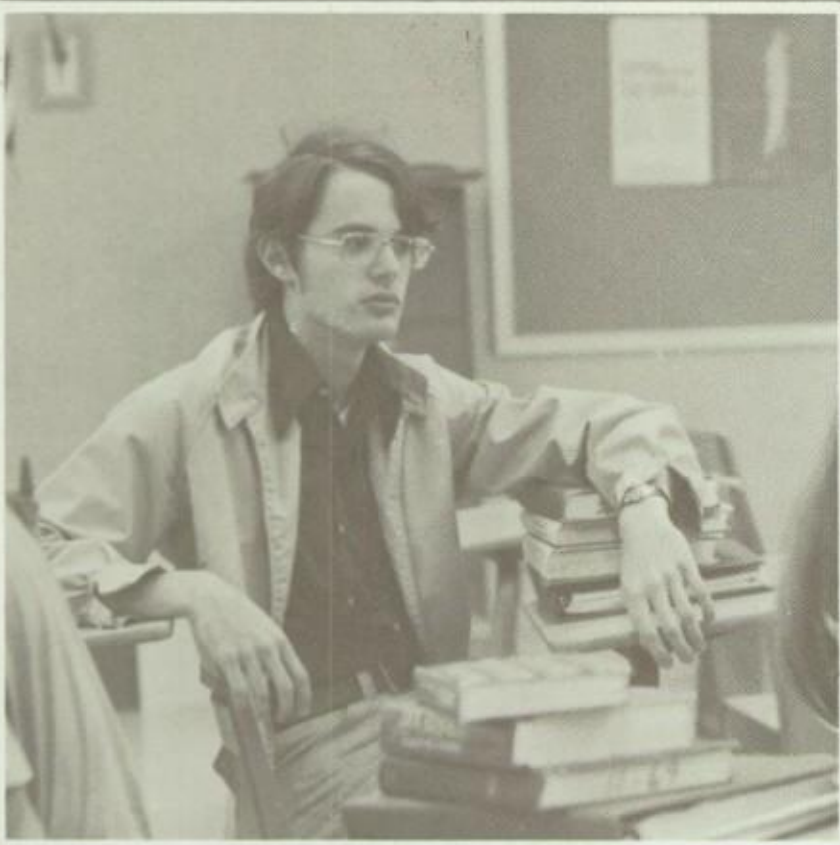

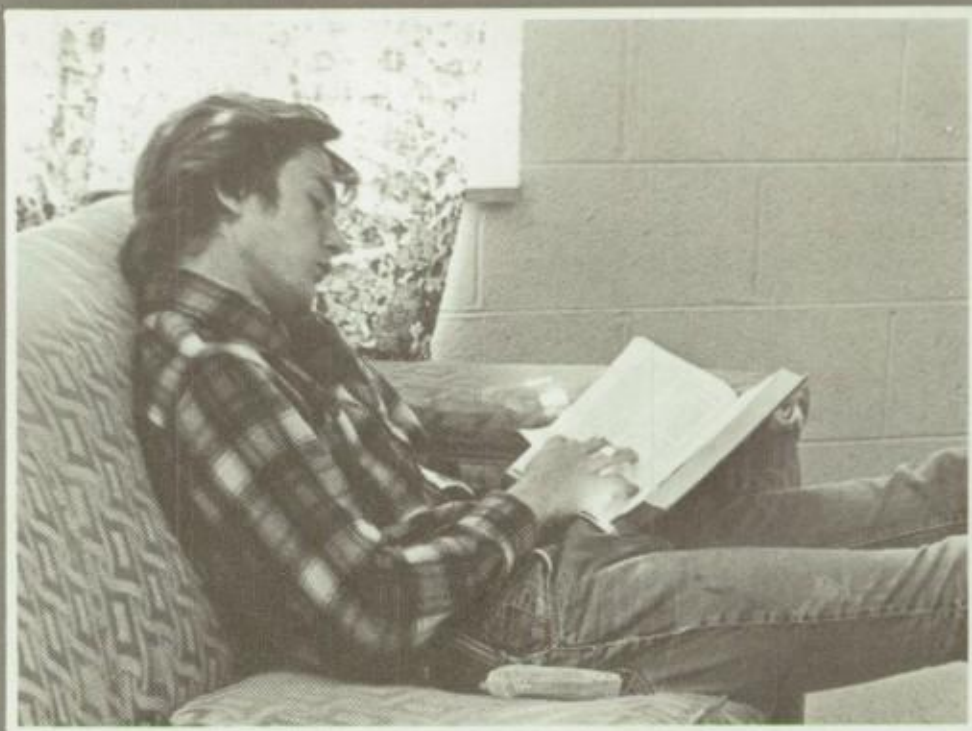

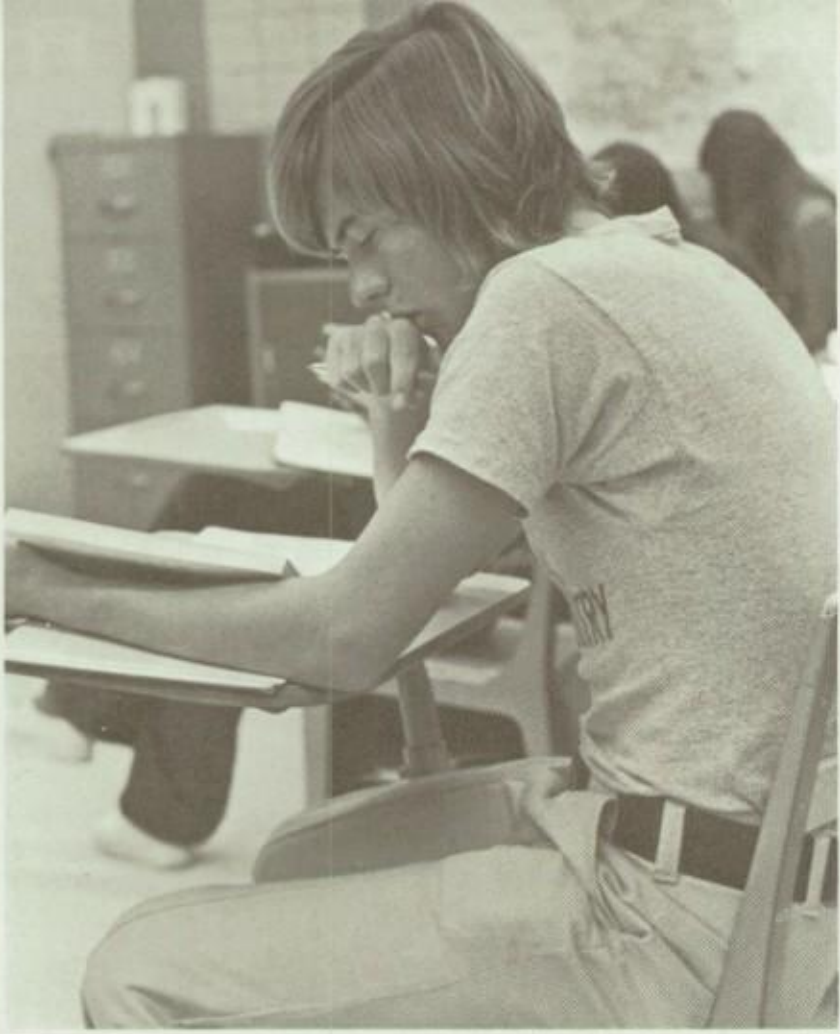

Reflections of a never-ending series of personal challenges and triumphs . . . The desire for success dominates the mind, yet failure pierces the soul with the utmost pain.

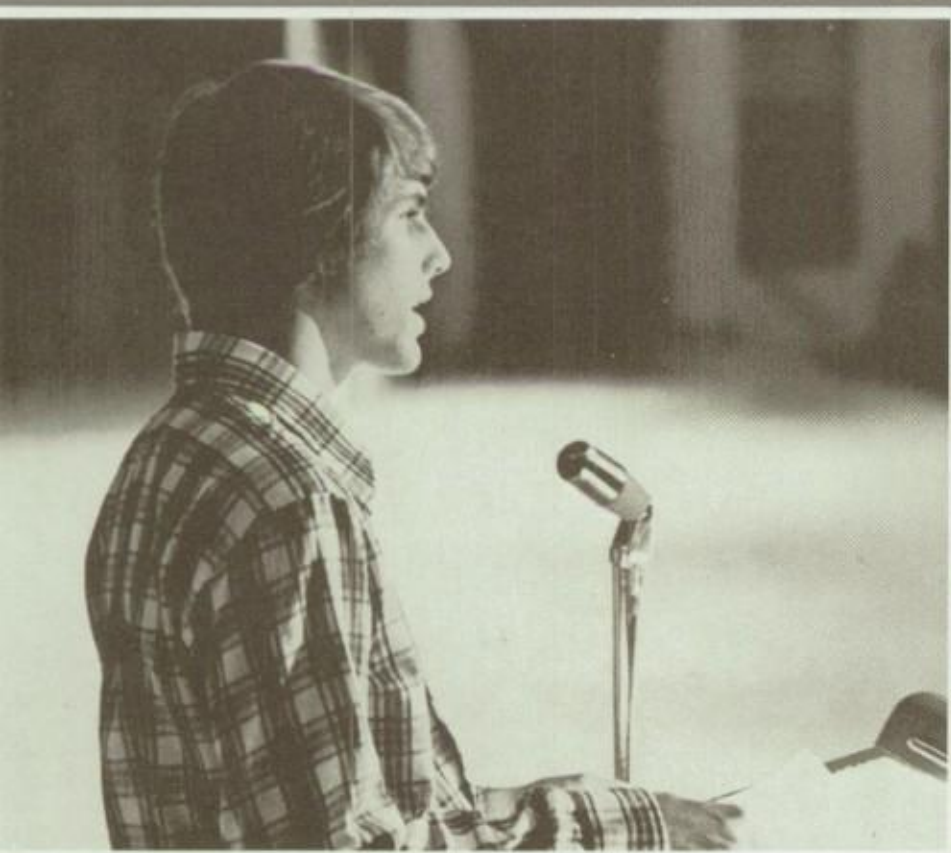

Reflections of study time, pleasure time, Advanced Procrastination time . . . As there is a time and place for everything, so a typical school day represents the various activities of life.

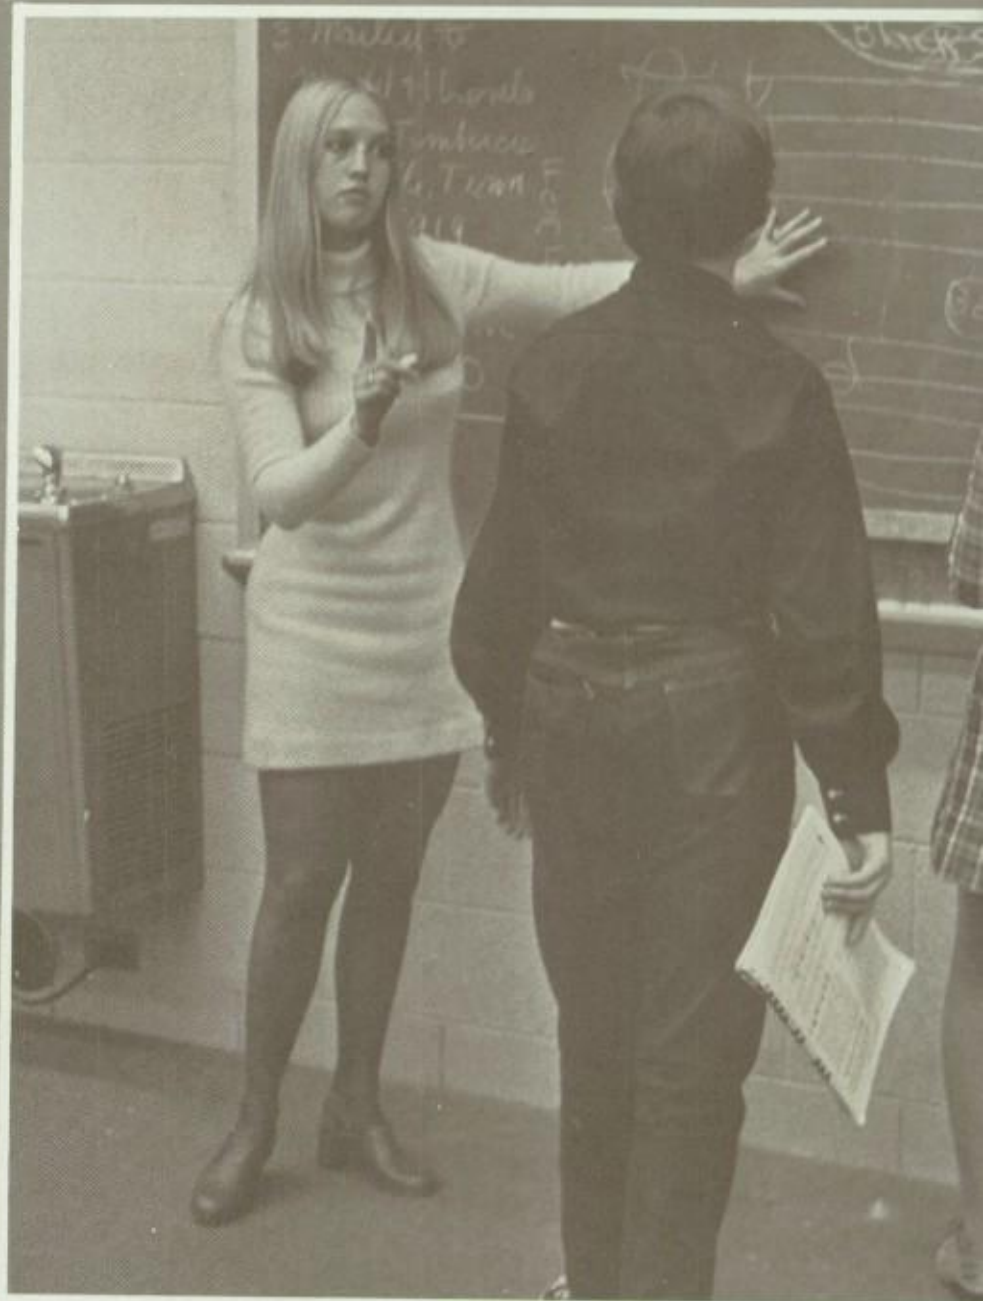

Reflections of the long and winding path of mutual contact and interaction . . . Of learning to tolerate and understand the nature of fellow individuals.

Reflections of club functions, school dances and student participation ... High school — preparing us for the future, yet shielding us from the realities of another world.

Track

The accomplishments of the 1973 Track Team, spawned by the leadership and instruction of Coach Bob LeSueur, were many fold. The squad accumulated five separate meet championships, including scores upon scores of individual titles and acknowledgements. The team captured overall honors in the News-Sentinel Relays, the Morristown Lakeway Relays, the indoor and outdoor Knoxville Interscholastic League Relays, and the District Three Relays. Such successful endeavors, unsurpassed by any previous Bearden Track team, establish the 1973 Track team as best ever in Bearden history.

I'll leave
by the same door
I entered,
but different;
stronger,
older,
perhaps wiser;
Changed much or slightly
by you
and you and you;
your smiles, tears,
praise, criticism,
love and hate
are written on me
and in me.
And so, my dear friends,
and even my dear enemies,
it's not good-by,
for how can we ever part —
So let us just say
farewell
and leave together.
